Graphic Designer

Hello

Graphic Designer

Neeraj Bhatt

I'm a graphic designer who likes understanding the thinking behind a product before designing it. I study competitors and what people search for, then look for what could be done better. I work across brand, social, and web design.

Work Experience

SMARTCV BUILDERS — 2026 – Present
Position – Founder & Lead Designer

- Launched a CV builder end to end: brand, product, UX, website, and career content.
- Grew search presence from zero in 6 months, with the latest quarter delivering ~3x the visibility of the one before.
- Designed CV templates with palettes built from color theory, so CVs feel confident and human, not corporate.
- Kept brand colors and layouts consistent across the website and CV templates.
